

YOUR MISSION, IF YOU ACCEPT IT... WILL TAKE YOU DEEP INTO THE WORLD OF CHEESE STICKING

MISSION: UNSTICKABLE

A top-secret
dairy operation.

About the presentator :

With his background in dairy science, Agent Tanjona Rabesolonirina takes on his most delicate mission yet: uncovering the secret forces that bind cheeses to their plastic molds. Operating under the codename "Unstickable", he infiltrates the production line armed with nothing but precision instruments, a sharp scientific mind, and the unwavering support of Cécile Le Floch-Fouere, Thomas Croguennec, and Gilles Garric. From the demolding lines to the hidden surfaces of the molds, no trace of adhesion escapes his investigation. His goal: identify the key adhesion agents, decode their interfacial interactions, and prevent the ultimate dairy disaster: the cheese that won't release.

Every experiment is a high-stakes operation. One wrong move, and the evidence (and the cheese) could be lost forever...
